You Talk - We Listen

Hearing vs. Listening

There is a reason why we have two ears and one mouth – we must listen twice as much as we speak.

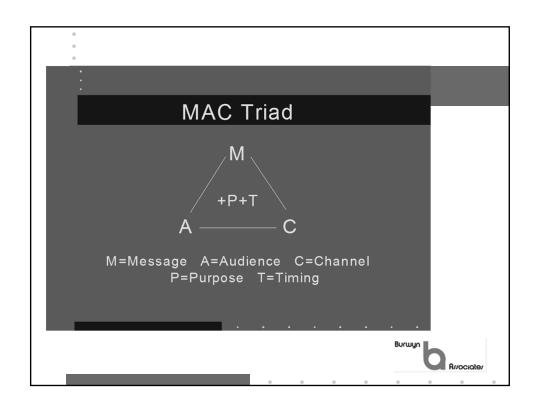

Burwyn Arrociater

Strategic/Public Communication

- Strategic/public communication is at the heart of our economy, society and politics. Studios use it to promote their films. Politicians use it to get elected. Businesses use it to burnish their image. Advocates use it to promote social causes.
- It is a field built on ideas and images, persuasion and information, strategy and tactics. No policy or product can succeed without a smart (strategic) message targeted to the right audience in creative and innovative ways at the ideal time using the proper channel. The ability to communicate this way to communicate strategically is what strategic/public communication is all about.

Public Relations...

A tool of leadership! [more later...]

Public Relations 101

- Management and counseling function
- Enables organizations to build and maintain relationships
- Through an understanding of audience attitudes, opinions and values
- Planned, deliberate and two-way
- Conscience of organization
- Overseer of brand/reputation
- Relationship management

Public Relations

A management function that helps organizations and their publics mutually adapt to one another.

Public Relations

- "Public relations helps an organization and its publics adapt mutually to each other."
- "Public relations is a strategic communication process that builds mutually beneficial relationships between organizations and their publics."

Public Relations

 "Public relations is a [two-way] strategic communication process [management function] that builds mutually beneficial relationships between organizations and their publics."

Advertising 101

- Paid
- (Non)-personal communication
- From identified sponsor
- Using (mass) media
- To persuade or influence
- Audience

(Paid - Controlled)

Marketing 101

Determine what people need (and want) and give it to them.

PR Practitioners are...

Strategic Advisors

Edward Bernays' Public Relations Functions

- To interpret the client to the public, which means promoting the client
- To interpret the public to the client, which means operating the company in such a way as to gain the approval of the public
- To act as a public service
- To promote new ideas and progress
- To build a public conscience

Accountability's - Bottom Line

- Senior managers want marketing managers to prove that their marketing is effective based on:
 - Sales increases
 - Percentage share of the market the brand holds
 - Return on Investment (ROI)
- Agencies are creating departments to help marketers evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of their marketing communication budgets.

How is accountability measured?

Principles of Authentic Communication³

- Truth being accurate and factually correct.
- Fundamentality dealing with the core or essential issues and information.
- Comprehensiveness telling the whole story, including the meanings and implications of the issue in question.

Principles of Authentic Communication*

- Relevance taking into account and making connections with the interests of the parties involved.
- Clarity using language that is appropriate and understandable for those involved, explaining technical terms, organizing and illustrating the information logically and understandably [clear, concise, complete, consistent, specific, simplistic.]

Burwyn Arrociater

Principles of Authentic Communication*

- Timeliness providing information when it is known, leaving sufficient time for response prior to decisions or actions.
- Consistency not opposing or contradicting your own or your organization's other words or actions.
- Accessibility making information, relevant sources and opportunities for discussion easily available to all parties; assuring physical accessibility to meetings.

Burwyn Arrociater

Principles of Authentic Communication*

- Responsiveness to feedback engaging in two-way communication, seeking others' views and concerns and allowing those concerns to influence the organization's actions.
- Care showing respect, concern and compassion for the circumstances, attitudes, beliefs and feelings of other parties.

- Use surrogates (stand-ins)

Burwyn Arrociater

Features and Benefits

Features

 Important characteristics of a product or service.

Stress features to active audiences.

Benefits

 The quality of product or service that supplies satisfaction or need fulfillment to the consumer or audience member.

Stress benefits to passive audiences.

WII-FM

Features + Benefits = Value

Value = Worth

Bargain

When the value exceeds the cost.

Remember, you only get what you pay for – but most times you don't even get that!

Persuade vs. Convince

- Persuade
 - Change of mind or attitude (for a short time)
 - When you persuade someone, you get them to act without convincing them
- Convince
 - Change of heart and mind (long term)
 - When you convince someone, you actually get them to believe something else

Burwyn Arrociater

Persuasion Pointers

- Know your audience
- Know what you can accomplish
- Anticipate objections/dispel them
- Establish mutual goals/a common ground
- Give options/choices
- Be clear
- Be familiar

Persuasion cont.

- Use problem/solution format
- Stress rewards/benefits
- Control the tone
- Clinch your argument
- Ask for what you want
- Leave (impression) something to remember

Burwyn Arrociater

Three-Step vs. Two-Step Flow

Three-Step Flow

Two-Step Flow

- 1. Credible endorser*
- 2. Key communicator
- 3. (Targeted) publics
- 1. Mass-media
- message carrier
 2. (Targeted) publics
- *Source credibility

- Know what our employer does and the industry he/she represents.
- Have an "attitude" think strategically.
- Be a counselor.
- Always be ethical open, honest, thorough and valid – the "corporate conscience" (CCO = Corporate Conscience Officer or Chief Communication Officer)

Burwyn Arrociater

And above all...

Are you willing to tell the boss what he/she needs to hear rather than what he/she wants to hear?

That is how YOU will get a seat at the table.

Six Cs of Writing Assessment*

- Clarity Say what you mean, mean what you say
- Correct Avoid errors to avoid confusion
- Connection Engage your reader
- Compelling Motivate an action
- Conviction Live on branding
- Consistency Stay on message...always
